

I. Summary

	2008 – 2009	+/-%
➤ Library Attendance	150,620	-24%
➤ Library Class Instruction	73	-11%
➤ Research Consultations (RPC) (Dramatic increase occurred because of clarification of our definition of RPC's)	751	+378%
➤ Reference Questions (Because of amended research consultation definitions, we saw a decrease in the reference question category. We realized we were actually doing research consultations with these students instead of just answering reference questions)	6,272	-1%
➤ Oxford Total Circulation (Circulation increased in all areas except for physical reserves circulation which continues to decrease (-39%) from 2007-2008)	27,987	+22%
➤ Reserves Direct (Decline accounted for by digitization of foreign language lab materials, by offering free earbuds as well as the possibility of an increase in Blackboard use by faculty)	2,507	-12%
➤ Interlibrary Loan/Document Delivery (Increase due to increase of items borrowed (+78%) and articles supplied (+40%))	631	+16%
➤ Books/Serials - Titles (Small increase despite increases in book/serial costs and withdrawals)	66,421	+3.1%
➤ Books/Serials Bound Volumes – Copies	92,681	+2.4%
➤ SFX – eJournal Requests (Increase due to ease of directly linking to articles through discoverE)	11,850	+42%
➤ Webrelay – Databases (Decrease due to discoverE rollout which did not require users to link on separate databases @Emory link).	6,806	-29%
➤ Webcat – EUCLID (Decrease due to discoverE replacing most of EUCLID's functions).	51,133	-34%
➤ Library Website Visits (homepage) (Increase due to improved visibility of library web page with direct link from all college pages to the library)	61,873	+19%

The Emory University Libraries' holdings include more than 3.5 million print and electronic volumes, 50,000-plus electronic journals, and internationally renowned special collections.
