

I. Summary

	2009-2010	+/-%
➤ Library Attendance	151,254	+41%
➤ Library Class Instruction	112	+35%
➤ Research Consultations	1,122	+33%
➤ Ask Desk Questions	11,523	+84%
➤ Oxford Total Circulation (Circulation increased in all areas except reference books which is due in part to moving many reference books into the main circulating collection)	38,638	+28%
➤ Reserves Direct (Decline due to items over the fair use guidelines which contributed to an increase in physical reserves circulation +42% over previous year)	2,217	-13%
➤ Interlibrary Loan/Document Delivery (Increase due to increase of items borrowed (+12%), items loaned (+21), and articles obtained (+6))	677	+7%
➤ Books/Serials Bound Volumes - Titles (Small increase due to withdrawal of reference and 125 periodical titles (-35% from previous year))	67,176	+1%
➤ Books/Serials Bound Volumes – Copies (Decrease due to withdrawal of reference and 125 periodical titles (-35% from previous year))	88,911	-4%
➤ Digital Library Traffic (Digital traffic to the library is comparable to physical attendance)	131,602
➤ IM and Text Message Traffic (Significant increase in IM and Text message traffic due to expanded service hours, new media, and outreach efforts)	1,509	+516%
➤ Webcat – EUCLID (Decrease due to Oxford library teaching students to use discoverE to find items in the Emory Libraries – this bypasses EUCLID unless an Atlanta Oxford request is initiated or patron wants to see more information about the item)	36,280	-29%
➤ Library Website Pageviews (homepage) (Total visits to the library’s main page decreased, but visits to all library pages increased. Redundant URL’s for library homepage make this difficult to count.)	45,306	-27%

The Emory University Library holdings include more than 3.5 million print and electronic volumes, 60,000-plus electronic journals, and internationally renowned special collections.
